DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election of Group 1, claims 1 and 4 in Paper No. 5 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Musgrove et al., U.S. Patent No. 6,535,880.

The Musgrove '880 patent disclose a sales and delivery support system. The system comprises a first means (20) in which the seller terminal (40) sends to the purchaser terminal (12) product information and delivery agent information (i.e., shipping method – col. 6, line 599). The system comprises a second means (24) in which the seller terminal receives the information from the purchaser regarding products the purchaser specifies to order and a purchaser specified delivery agent and generates purchase order identification information to identify the purchaser and for use to deliver the ordered product. The system further comprises a third means (col. 7, lines 21-30) for sending the purchase order identification information to the purchaser terminal and the delivery agent terminal.

Regarding claim 4: The system further comprises a means (col. 7, lines 30-36) in which the delivery agent terminal compares purchase order information received from the purchaser with that received from the seller and verifies the coincidence of the information.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Breen, Jr. et al., U.S. Patent No. 6,598,027, discloses a system and method for selling regulated products, the system includes means for allowing the buyer and seller to view shipping information. See col. 7, lines 57-64. Chelliah et al., U.S. Patent No. 5,710,887, discloses a computer system and method for electronic commerce. See abstract. Franklin et al., U.S. Patent No. 6,125,352, discloses a system and method for conducting commerce. See abstract. DiMattina, U.S. Patent No. 6,405,177, discloses a system for commercial transactions online including the step of providing information to delivery agents. See Fig. 1. Southam, U.S. Patent No. 6,594,641, discloses a computer facilitated product selling system which enables a customer to select a shipping method. See Fig. 3.
